that of Isaac Caldwell, Postmaster at Peoria, Ill., THE SECRETARY AND FORMER CASE

reserved to the consideration of the Senate to-morrow by the adoption of a resolution requiring the Secretary of State to be furnished to the bar of the Senate with the papers referred to in the report of the Committee on Foreign Affairs in the case of Mr. Fogg. The debate was lengthy and protracted, and the Senate did not adjourn till a late hour. The investigation of charges against Secretary Seward will be made before voting for the adjournment. The debate was brought to a close when Senator Sumner, in behalf of the Committee on Foreign Affairs, Mr. Grimes, in behalf of the Committee on Naval Affairs, only also Senator Foley to remain the bar of the Senate and close the doors. The question of reprimand was carried, by 29 to 16.

ASSAULT IN THE CAPITOL.

At the request of A. R. Shoemaker, the late appointed Collector of the Philadelphia Custom House, Colonel Forney, of this city, to-day committed to U. S. Marshal Wilson, charged with assaulting Shoemaker in the capitol, and in the presence of the Committee on Ways and Means. The examination was postponed till to-morrow, when Shoemaker will engage with his counsel. The Committee on Ways and Means will investigate the matter.

THE SECRETARY'S CHANGES.

Several Republican Senators have already expressed their intention to vote for Mr. Stanberry's confirmation as Attorney General. It is probable that Mr. Stanberry will vote to reject Mr. Randall as Postmaster General.

YESTERDAY'S CABINET MEETING.

The Cabinet session to-day was a protracted one. Secretaries Seward and Harlan attended for the first time since the assassination of President Lincoln. There were no communications from the Post Office Department or Attorney General's office present, however.

Another bloody shooting out about twenty-five miles from Washington, on Friday evening last. Two men were killed and two others badly wounded.

It will show the Government will realize will be the exchange checks of the removal, with which Postmaster Denison, the Treasurer, has had so much trouble.

MAJ. GEN. CLARK'S RESIGNATION ACCEPTED.

The resignation of Hon. Rufus Clark, as Comptroller of Currency, was accepted by the President to-day. E. R. Hodge, late Assistant Deputy Comptroller, is mentioned as Mr. Clark's probable successor, though it is not likely Clark's appointment will be made for a week or ten days.

In the meanwhile Mr. Hodgkins will perform the duties of the Bureau.

THE PRESIDENT RETURNED.

The President, after a three days' sojourn at the residence of Col. Pendleton's estate, has approved the Freedmen's Bureau bill and the Civil Rights bill, and returned to-day peremptorily refused to interfere in the execution of the sentence.

TO BE HUNG.

An order was promulgated by the War Department, at the instance of the President, directing that all persons who are under the sentence of military courts, and have been imprisoned at the Dry Tortugas, be discharged from imprisonment, and the residue of their sentences be remitted. Those who belong in the military service and their term unexpired, will be returned to their command if it is still in the service, and their release conditioned upon their serving their full term, and upon good behavior. Lists of persons discharged under this order will be sent to the Adjutant General of the army.

THE HEAT.

The heat to-day has been intense. Several cases of sun-stroke occurred.

MR. CHAMBERLAIN'S CHANCES.

Several Republican Senators have already expressed their intention to vote for Mr. Stanberry's confirmation as Attorney General. It is probable that Mr. Stanberry will vote to reject Mr. Randall as Postmaster General.

THE CITY.

A Missing Man.—A son of Dr. Lange, about 23 years old, has been missing from his premises, No. 1 Fifth-av., since Saturday night. He left home at 10 o'clock on that night, and has not since been heard from. He is described as being about 5 feet 8 inches high, and of slender build. He was dressed in a light suit of clothes, and wore a straw hat.

G. A. R.—The Commissary-Sergeant of the various companies of the Second Brigade, Second Division, Second Army Corps, will meet at the Quartermaster's office, Camp Fry, on Wednesday, July 21, at 10 o'clock a. m., for the purpose of drawing rations for the encampment at Geneva Lake, commencing July 22. Two other men, Messrs. Cochrane and Lyon, have been added to the list of visitors who will leave on the 22d inst., making a party of twenty-two persons. The train will leave the depot of the Chicago & Northwestern Railway at 8 o'clock a. m.

To Patrons.—A grand Fair and Festival is in progress at the Hall, on the corner of Wabash-av. and Jackson-st. Good music, and all of the Choirs of the Plymouth Church Society will be present on the first and last evenings. The object of both Fair and Festival is worthy of support, and we hope that the public will not neglect to give it their patronage.

Barrels in Requisition.—The people of Rockford, Co. ans, Whiteside County, Illinois, have issued a call for twenty thousand barrels, and have taken active measures to secure them. A train was reported was made up and started with seventy-five barrels on Tuesday morning, and others are expected to follow.

Not Sold to Stewart Yet.—In our commercial column will be found a report of the transaction on the 22d—for on Sun'y there, as fell as it was possible to ascertain them. A sale not reported was made and accepted, some days ago, at about $1,400, which was the highest offer received at about $1,400, which was the highest offer received at about $1,400, which was the highest offer received
